ABEL ACOSTA, CLERK

APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND BRIEF

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS:

I.

Appellant, Russell Lamar Estes, moves the Court for leave to amend his Brief in this appeal, and in support thereof would show the Court the following:

II.

Appellant's Brief on the Merits, filed in this Court October 14, 2016, contained typographical errors on pages 18, 24 and 25 and unnecessary verbiage in the Statement of Facts. Additionally, the contact information for Attorney Adam L. Arrington on the signature page was out-of-date, and there were numerous mistakes in the Index of Authorities.

III.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Appellant says that justice requires his Brief to be amended per Tex. Rule App. Proc. 38.7, and he prays that this Court will grant him leave to amend said Brief and file an amended brief with this Court.

Respectfully submitted,

The Salvant Law Firm, PC
